

SOCIETY

In order to prevent impositions and embarrassments, the Tribune requests that persons leaving social notes, and especially marriage notices or engagements, for publication, leave with their names through which the source of the same may be traced if the matter is called in question.

CALENDAR.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fife will entertain at a reception and dance at Unity hall Wednesday evening in honor of their guest, Miss Miller of Fresno, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lambourn will entertain at cards at their home next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. J. Walcott Thompson will entertain at a second bridge tea at her home on D street this afternoon.

Mrs. Addison Caine will entertain at a luncheon in honor of Mrs. John Kempf, Jr., who will leave soon to make her home in New York.

The Browning section will be entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the University club today, when Mrs. Elmer B. Jones will be the hostess.

A quiet wedding at noon Thanksgiving day, the result of a school romance, was that of Miss Lorraine Wells of Weston, Ohio, to Frederick B. Pfeiffer of Newhouse, Utah. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bowman by the Rev. C. R. Neel of the Central Christian church. The bride wore a dainty gown of white mull and carried white roses. Her only attendant, Miss Hazel Bowman, wore a pretty pale blue liberty gown. Mr. Pfeiffer is manager of the American Trading company's store at Newhouse, and was unable to go East, so his bride came here. Mr. and Mrs. Pfeiffer will spend a few days here, staying at the Knutsford hotel, before going to their home in Newhouse.

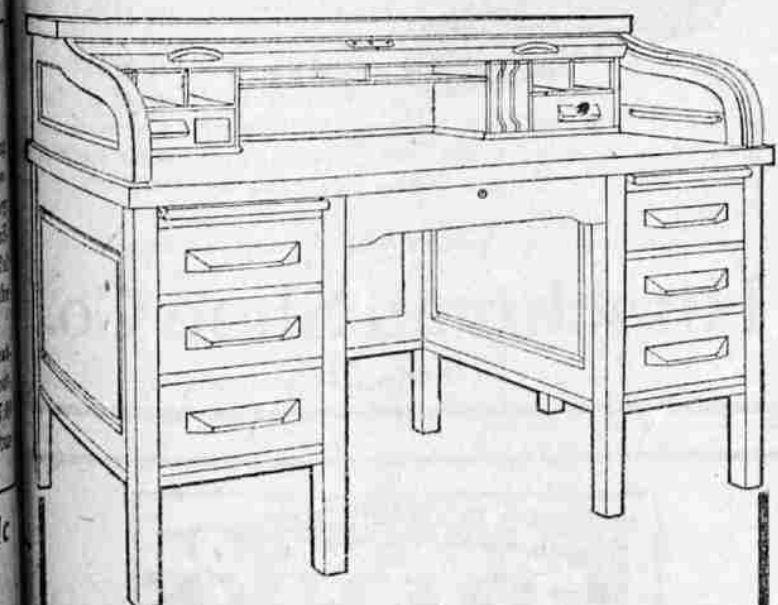

Miss Nellie Hasbrouck, who will leave this evening for the conservatory at Oberlin, O., accompanied by her father, entertained a number of friends at a delightful musicale at her home Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were prettily decorated in chrysanthemums in yellow, with yellow-shaded candles about the room. The guests were Mrs. Mary Frink, Mrs. J. V. Backle, Mrs. T. E. Heidle and the Misses Harshbarger, Lucile Heidle, Millie Williams, Hazel Teaschner, Helen Ross, Stella Ivy, Daisy Pence, Nellie Mallin, Edna Golden, Leona McCurtain and Vay Golden.

Miss Yvonne Moon entertained thirty-five of her friends at a party at her home Friday evening, in honor of her twentieth birthday. Red and white was the color scheme, prettily carried out.

Mrs. W. D. Foster entertained four tables at a bridge tea Friday afternoon, followed by a number later going in. Pink and white was the color scheme, well carried out. A clony lace was covered the table, with white and pink ribbons strung from the chandeliers to the corners of the table.

THE STORE Beautiful

while a candelabrum with pink candles and shades formed the centerpiece. Tea and coffee were poured by Mrs. Elbridge Thomas and Mrs. C. A. Reynolds of Michigan, who were assisted by Mrs. W. W. Ray and Miss Aiverda Martin.

Friends will be glad to hear that Miss Anna McCormick is improving from her operation at the Holy Cross hospital.

Mrs. A. C. Smith entertained the members of the Plate club at a 1 o'clock luncheon at her home Friday, followed by bridge. The next meeting of the club will be Thursday, December 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Dole and daughter left Friday for their home at Huntington Beach, Cal.

Miss Flora Wilson, daughter of Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, and who is here for a few days, was guest at Mrs. David Keith's tea Friday afternoon. Thursday Miss Wilson was the guest of Mr. Newhouse at the football game. Miss Wilson, who met Mr. Newhouse on a trip in Colorado, is also a friend of Mrs. E. F. Holmes.

Miss Elsie Ward, who has spent the summer with her father in England, and several weeks in the Pacific Northwest, will be here the first of the month.

The many friends of Mrs. W. M. Rash will be glad to hear that she has returned to her home from the hospital, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

The Thompson home was the scene of a bridge tea Friday afternoon, when Mrs. J. Walcott Thompson entertained five tables at bridge. A number later went in to tea. Yellow chrysanthemums were effectively used in the decorations, with a tall crystal vase of them in the center of the tea table, where tea and coffee were poured by Mrs. D. Milton Thompson. Prizes were won by Mrs. T. B. Reilly, Mrs. G. C. Moore, Mrs. D. Milton Thompson, Mrs. Rose and Miss McGrath.

The Misses Folsom will be home next week after spending three months in Idaho.

Tonight sees the close of the French classes conducted by Mr. Nesbit of Pacific coast fame at Unity hall. A hundred or more have enjoyed the classes and have given up many social attractions in order to attend them more than once a day. All pupils of the first class are invited to be present at the final meeting tonight. Mr. Nesbit will leave for his home in Berkeley, Cal., Sunday.

One of the charming bridge teas of the week was that Friday afternoon, when Mrs. David Keith entertained eight tables at bridge and a number later to tea. The drawing rooms were handsomely decorated in large clusters of yellow chrysanthemums, while American Republics were effectively used in the dining room, with a tall vase of them in the center of the tea table, which was covered with a duchess and Maltese lace cloth. Tea and coffee were poured by Mrs. Reilly, Mrs. X. Smith and Mrs. D. Moore Lindsay.

Mrs. Robert J. Coleman of Los Angeles, Cal., is here, the guest of her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Coleman, 9 Critchlow apartments. Monday afternoon they will be at home to their friends.

Mrs. E. F. Holmes of this city, who is spending the winter at Pasadena, Cal., has wired Miss Flora Wilson, the actress daughter of the secretary of agriculture, who is here on tour, the following telegram: "Best wishes for success of your concert. Sending letter. Regret my absence."
